November 9, 2018: A SPECIAL VETERANS DAY MESSAGE FROM THE TREASURER

As we look ahead to Veterans Day on Sunday (observed Monday), I'd like to offer my sincere thanks to all our Arizona veterans. Your service and commitment to our nation is greatly appreciated and deserves to be recognized. With that in mind, I'd like to recognize one of our veterans working in the Arizona State Treasurer's Office: Human Resource Manager – Ken Price.

Ken served 30 years in the Air Force achieving the highest enlisted rank of Chief Master Sergeant. Ken was a Special Mission Aviator, conducting many combat rescue missions in Bosnia, Iraq, and Afghanistan. Now Ken uses his MBA from the University of Arizona to direct HR for Treasury employees. We salute Chief Master Sergeant Ken Price (along with Treasury Investment Accounting Manager Michael Leslein who served 3 years in the Army) and the many other men and women who risk their lives every day to protect our freedom. Happy Veterans Day.
